KINSHIP CAREGIVERS NEEDED

Do you believe that youth are our future and feel you have skills and knowledge to help youth reach their full potential? Are you ready to open your heart and your home to Indigenous youth and support them as they navigate into independent living? If you are, KKCFS would love to hear from you.

Ktunaxa Kinbasket Child and Family Services is currently looking for specialized caregivers who will:

- Provide a safe & nurturing environment for youth who are in need of alternate care on a temporary or long-term basis;
- Support and embrace every aspect of a youth's being, including their cultural heritage;
- Work as a team member to ensure that youth receive quality care & thrive to their full capacity and potential;
- Teach skills necessary for transition to independent living
- Advocate on behalf of the youth to ensure their rights are being respected.

We welcome all qualified applicants including women and men, LGBTQ+ couples, singles, people from all ethnicities and backgrounds, and older adults.

Training, support and financial compensation is offered to our families.
